EXECUTIVES APPRECIATION

Entering our mandate as Co-Presidents, one of our main goals this year was to increase JMWL's visibility and showcase its true potential.

It is with great joy that we announce that we have not only met but exceeded our objectives in remarkable ways. We organized more than seven significant events throughout the year and increased our social media following by more than 45%. These events were instrumental in empowering women and driving our mission forward. None of this would have been possible without the dedication and hard work of our executive team, ambassadors, and our sponsors' support. We cannot wait to see what next year's presidents have in store to continue enhancing JMWL's growth! -Daniela & Chloe
